

Awards for Lincoln Graduates

Olivia KRIELEN

Lincoln University graduate Bachelor of Environmental Management and Planning, 2013.

Ruth Markham-Short

In 2013 the John Hayward Memorial Prize went to Ruth Markham-Short. This prestigious prize is awarded to the most outstanding Master of Environmental Policy student who has completed the degree, based mainly on academic performance in all the core/compulsory subjects of the degree. It was created after the death of John Hayward (in 1993), who was the founder, and for a long time director, of the Centre for Resource Management and of the Master of Science (Resource Management) degree, the precursor of the Master of Environmental Policy degree

Jay Whitehead

Jay Whitehead has won the Brooker Prize for Lincoln University for 2013. Thomson Brookers is the major law publishing firm in New Zealand and has close connections with Lincoln University. It's online and hard copy versions of the Resource Management Act and other legislation enables students to keep up to date with relevant changes in planning law. It offers awards to planning/planning law students at universities throughout the country and the criteria for gaining the award varies from university to university. At Lincoln University the Brookers Prize in Resource Management is awarded each year to the student enrolled in the first year of the MEP who gains the highest marks in the five core subjects: ERST 630, ERST 631, ERST 632, ERST 633 & MAST 603.

*Both Ruth and Jay are now employed by Christchurch City Council in the regulatory and democracy services team.
